Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Chris Langer,
Plaintiff,
v.

Oval Motor Sports, Inc., a
California Corporation, dba Antioch
Speedway;
Defendants.

Case No.

Complaint for Damages and Injunctive Relief for Violations
of: American's with Disabilities
Act; Unruh Civil Rights Act

Plaintiff Chris Langer ("Plaintiff") complains of Oval Motor Sports, Inc., a California Corporation, dba Antioch Speedway ("Defendant"), and alleges as follows:

PARTIES:

1. Plaintiff is a disabled individual and a member of a protected class of persons under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Plaintiff is profoundly hard of hearing and needs closed captioning to consume audio content such as movies, videos or tutorials. Plaintiff is a California resident.

2. Defendant Oval Motor Sports, Inc. ("Oval Motor Sports, Inc.") owned

1 or operated Antioch Speedway located in Contra Costa County in July 2021.

2 3. Defendant Oval Motor Sports, Inc. (“Oval Motor Sports, Inc.”) owns or 3 operates Antioch Speedway located in Contra Costa County currently.

4 4. Defendant Oval Motor Sports, Inc. owns the Antioch Speedway website,
5 with a root domain of: <https://www.antiochspeedway.com/>, and all related
6 domains, sub-domains and/or content contained within it, (“Website”) in July 7 2021.

8 5. Defendant Oval Motor Sports, Inc. owns the website currently.

9 6. Upon information and belief, Defendant Oval Motor Sports, Inc. owned 10 or operated its YouTube channel in July 2021.

11 7. Upon information and belief, Defendant Oval Motor Sports, Inc. owns 12 or operates its YouTube channel currently.

13 8. Plaintiff does not know the true names of Defendants, their business 14 capacities, their ownership connection to the property and business, or their 15 relative responsibilities in causing the access violations herein complained of,
16 and alleges a joint venture and common enterprise by all such Defendants.
17 Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the Defendants herein, is 18 responsible in some capacity for the events herein alleged or is a necessary
19 party for obtaining appropriate relief. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend when 20 the true names, capacities, connections, and responsibilities of the 21 Defendants are ascertained.

22
23 JURISDICTION & VENUE:

24 9. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the action pursuant to 28
25 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1343(a)(3) & (a)(4) for violations of the Americans with 26 Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq. (“ADA”)

27 10. This court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s non-federal 28 claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because Plaintiff’s Unruh claims are

1 formed from the same case and/or controversy and are related to Plaintiff's
2 ADA claims. A violation of the ADA is a violation of Unruh. (Cal. Code §51(f).

3 11. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). Defendant
4 is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District due to its business contacts
5 with the District.

7 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS:

8 12. Plaintiff is hard of hearing and is a member of a protected class under 9 the ADA.

10 13. Plaintiff relies on subtitles and closed captioning to hear audio in 11 recorded content.

12 14. Oval Motor Sports, Inc. operates privileges, goods or services out of a 13 physical location in California. These services are open to the public, places of 14 public accommodation, and business establishments.

15 15. The Website is a nexus between Oval Motor Sports, Inc. customers and 16 the terrestrial based privileges, goods or services offered by Oval Motor Sports, 17 Inc.

18 16. Oval Motor Sports, Inc. offers videos on its website to induce customers
19 to purchase its goods or services. Websites and videos are some of the facilities, 20 privileges, or advantages offered by Defendants to patrons of Oval Motor 21 Sports, Inc.

22 17. Plaintiff was a prospective customer who wished to access Defendant's 23 goods or services.

24 18. Plaintiff visited the Website in July 2021 to look for information about 25 car racing.

26 19. When Plaintiff attempted to view video content on the Website, he 27 discovered that the videos lacked closed captioning, which made him unable 28 to fully understand and consume the contents of the videos.

1 20. Plaintiff experienced difficulty and discomfort in attempting to view
2 videos including: “Antioch SpeedwaytCommercia2l”. As a result of this 3 inaccessibility, he was deterred from further use of the Website.

4 21. Currently, the Defendants either fail to provide an accessible website or 5 Defendants have failed to maintain in working and useable conditions those 6 website features required to provide ready access to persons with disabilities.

7 22. Despite multiple attempts to access the Website using Plaintiff’s
8 computer, Plaintiff has been denied the full use and enjoyment of the facilities,
9 goods and services offered by Defendants as a result of the accessibility 10 barriers.

11 23. Plaintiff personally encountered accessibility barriers and has actual 12 knowledge of them.

13 24. By failing to provide an accessible website, the Defendants denied
14 Plaintiff full and equal access to the facilities privileges or advantages offered 15 to their customers.

16 25. Plaintiff has been deterred from returning to the website as a result of 17 these prior experiences.

18 26. The failure to provide accessible facilities created difficulty and 19 discomfort for the Plaintiff.

20 27. If the Website had been constructed equally accessible to all individuals, 21 Plaintiff would have been able to navigate the website and avail himself of its 22 goods and/or services.

23 28. Additionally, Plaintiff is a tester in this litigation and seeks future
24 compliance with all federal and state laws. Plaintiff will return to the Website 25 to avail himself of its goods and/or services and to determine compliance with 26 the disability access laws once it is represented to him that Oval Motor Sports,
27 Inc. and Website are accessible.

28 29. Plaintiff is currently deterred from doing so because of Plaintiff’s

1 knowledge of the existing barriers and uncertainty about the existence of yet
2 other barriers on the Website. If the barriers are not removed, Plaintiff will 3 face unlawful and discriminatory barriers again.

4 30. The barriers identified above violate easily accessible, well-established
5 industry standard guidelines for making digital content accessible to people
6 with hearing-impairments to access websites. Given the prevalence of 7 websites that have implemented these standards and created accessible digital 8 content, it is readily achievable to construct an accessible website without 9 undue burden on Oval Motor Sports, Inc. or a fundamental alteration of the 10 purpose of the Website.

11 31. Compliance with W3C Web Content Accessibility Guidelines
12 (“WCAG”) 2.0 AA standards is a viable remedy for these deficiencies and a 13 standard that has been adopted by California courts for website accessibility.

14 32. It’s been established that failure to remove inaccessible website
15 conditions violates the ADA and California law and requiring compliance with 16 industry access standards is a remedy available to the Plaintiff.

17 33. The website content was intentionally designed, and based on 18 information and belief, it is the Defendants’ policy and practice to deny 19 Plaintiff access to the website, and as a result, deny the goods and services that 20 are otherwise available to patrons of Oval Motor Sports, Inc.

21 34. Due to the failure to construct and operate the website in line with 22 industry standards, Plaintiff has been denied equal access to Defendant’s car 23 racing park and the various goods, services, privileges, opportunities and 24 benefits offered to the public by Oval Motor Sports, Inc.

25 35. Closed captioning can be provided at little cost, sometimes free or mere 26 dollars per minute of video content.

27 36. Closed captioning is supported by numerous third-party hosting
28 companies, including the one chosen by Defendants, and can be provided at 1 little cost, sometimes free or mere dollars per minute of video content.

2 37. Given the nature of the barriers and violations alleged herein, the 3 Plaintiff alleges, on information and belief, that there are other violations and 4 barriers on the Website that relate to his disability. In addition to the barriers
5 he personally encountered, Plaintiff intends to seek removal of all barriers on 6 the Website that relate to his disability. See Doran v. 7-Eleven (9th Cir. 2008)
7 524 F.3d 1034 (holding that once a plaintiff encounters one barrier, they can 8 sue to have all barriers that relate to their disability removed regardless of 9 whether they personally encountered the barrier).

10 38. Plaintiff will amend the complaint, to provide further notice regarding 11 the scope of the additional demanded remediation in the event additional 12 barriers are uncovered through discovery. However, please be on notice that 13 the plaintiff seeks to have all barriers related to his disability remedied.

14
15 I. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE AMERICANS
16 WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990 (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all 17 Defendants.) (42 U.S.C. section 12101, et seq.)

18 39. Plaintiff re-pleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
19 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 20 complaint. Defendant is a public accommodation with the definition of Title
21 III of the ADA, 42 USC § 12181.

22 40. The website provided by the Defendant is a service, privilege or 23 advantage and extension of Oval Motor Sports, Inc. physical presence and 24 terrestrial services.

25 41. When a business provides services such as a website, it must provide an 26 accessible website.

27 42. Here, access to an accessible website has not been provided. A failure to 28 provide an accessible website is unlawful discrimination against persons with

1 disabilities.

2 43. Under the ADA, it is an act of discrimination to fail to ensure that the 3 privileges, advantages, accommodations, facilities, goods and services of any 4 place of public accommodation is offered on a full and equal basis by anyone
5 who owns, leases, or operates a place of public accommodation. See: 42 U.S.C.
6 § 12182(a). Discrimination is defined, inter alia, as follows: “A failure to make 7 reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures, when such 8 modifications are necessary to afford goods, services, facilities, privileges, 9 advantages, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the 10 accommodation would work a fundamental alteration of those services and 11 facilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).”

12 44. Here, the failure to ensure that the accessible facilities were available 13 and ready to be used by the plaintiff is a violation of the law.

14 45. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188 and the remedies, procedures and rights
15 set forth and incorporated therein, Plaintiff requests relief as set forth below.

17 II. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE UNRUH CIVIL
18 RIGHTS ACT (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all Defendants.) (Cal. Civ.
19 Code § 51-53.)

20 46. Plaintiff repleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
21 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 22 complaint. The Unruh Civil Rights Act (“Unruh Act”) guarantees, inter alia, 23 that persons with disabilities are entitled to full and equal accommodations, 24 advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishment of 25 every kind whatsoever within the jurisdiction of the State of California. Cal.
26 Civ. Code § 51(b).

27 47. The Unruh Act provides that a violation of the ADA is a violation of the 28 Unruh Act. Cal. Civ. Code § 51(f).

1 48. Defendants' acts and omissions, as herein alleged, have violated the 2 Unruh Act by, inter alia, denying, or aiding, or inciting the denial of, Plaintiff's
3 rights to full and equal use of the accommodations, advantages, facilities,
4 privileges, or services offered.

5 49. Because the violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act resulted in difficulty,
6 discomfort or embarrassment for the plaintiff, the defendants are also each
7 responsible for statutory damages, i.e., a civil penalty. Cal. Civ. Code § 8 55.56(a)-(c).

9 50. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188 and the remedies, procedures and rights
10 set forth and incorporated therein, Plaintiff requests relief as set forth below.

11
12 PRAYER:

13 Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that this Court award damages and provide 14 relief as follows:

15 1. A Declaratory Judgment that at the commencement of this action
16 Defendants were in violation of the requirements of the ADA due to 17 Defendants' failures to take action to ensure that its websites were fully 18 accessible to and independently usable by hearing-impaired individuals,
19 including providing closed-captioning on all video content containing audio 20 elements.

21 2. For equitable nominal damages for violation of civil rights. See 22 Uzuegbunam v. Preczewski, 141 S.Ct. 792 (2021) and any other equitable 23 relief the Court finds appropriate.

24 3. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C § 12181, a preliminary and permanent injunction
25 enjoining Defendants from violating the ADA with respect to its website, 26 including a requirement that all current and future audio-video content be 27 closed captioned at the time of upload.
28

1 4. Damages under the Unruh Civil Rights Act § 51¹, which provides for 2 actual damages and a statutory minimum of $4,000 for each offense.

3 5. Reasonable attorney fees, litigation expenses and costs of suit, pursuant 4 to 42 U.S.C. § 12205; and Cal. Civ. Code § 52.
